CHAPTER III

POSTAGE

7. Power to fix rates of inland postage.—(1) The <sup>1</sup>[Federal Government] may, by notification in the <sup>2</sup>[ official Gazette ], fix the rates of postage and other sums to be charged in respect of postal articles sent by the inland post under this Act, and may make rules as to the scale of weights, terms and conditions subject to which the rates so fixed shall be charged:

4*            *            *            *            *            *

(3) The <sup>1</sup>[Federal Government] may, by notification in the <sup>2</sup>[official Gazette], declare what packets may be sent by the inland post as <sup>3</sup>[printed papers and small packets] within the meaning of this Act.

8. Power to make rules as to payment of postage and fees in certain cases. The <sup>1</sup>[Federal Government] may, by rule,—

- (a) require the prepayment of postage on inland postal articles or any class of inland postal articles, and prescribe the manner in which prepayment shall be made;
- (b) prescribe the postage to be charged on inland postal articles when the postage is not prepaid or is insufficiently prepaid:
- (c) provide for the redirection of postal articles and the transmission by post of articles so redirected, either free of charge subject to such further charge as may be specified in the rules; and
- (d) prescribe the fees to be charged for the “express delivery” of postal articles, in addition to, or instead of, any other postage chargeable thereon under this Act.

Explanation.— “Express delivery” means delivery by a special messenger or conveyance.

9. Power to make rules as to registered newspapers.—(1) The <sup>1</sup>[Federal Government] may make rules providing for the registration of newspapers for transmission by in land post as registered newspapers.

(2) For the purpose of such registration, every publication, consisting wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements, shall be deemed a newspaper, subject to the following conditions, namely:—

(a) that it is published in numbers at intervals of not more than thirty-one days; and

(b) that it has a bona fide list of subscribers.

(3) An extra or supplement to a newspaper, bearing the same date as the newspaper and transmitted therewith, shall be deemed to be part of the newspaper:

Provided that no such extra or supplement shall be so deemed unless it consists wholly or in great part of matter like that of the newspaper and has the title and date of publication of the newspaper printed at the top of each page.

Explanation.—Nothing in this section or in the rules thereunder shall be construed to render it compulsory to send newspapers by the inland post.

10. Power to declare rates of foreign postage.—(1) Where arrangements are in force with <sup>1</sup>[any foreign country for the transmission by post of postal articles between Pakistan and such] country, the <sup>2</sup>[Federal Government] may, in conformity with the provisions of such arrangements, declare what postage rates and other sums shall be charged in respect of such postal articles, and may make rules as to the scale of weight, terms and conditions subject to which the rates so declared shall be charged.

(2) Unless and until such declaration as aforesaid is made, the existing rates and regulations shall continue in force.

11. Liability for payment of postage.—(1) The addressee of a postal article on which postage or any other sum chargeable under this Act is due, shall be bound to pay the postage or sum so chargeable on his accepting delivery of the postal article, unless he forthwith returns it unopened:

Provided that, if any such postal article appears to the satisfaction of the Post Master General to have been maliciously sent for the purpose of annoying the addressee, he may remit the postage.

<sup>1</sup>Subs. by the Federal Laws (Revision and Declaration) Ordinance, 1981 (27 of 1981), s. 3 and Second Sch., for, certain words.

<sup>2</sup>Subs. by F.A.O., 1975, Art. 2 and Table, for “Central Government”, which had been subs. by A.O., 1937. for, “G. G. in. C”.

(2) If any postal article on which postage or any other sum chargeable under this Act is due, is refused or returned as aforesaid, or if the addressee is dead or cannot be found, then the sender shall be bound to pay the postage or sum due thereon under this Act.

12. Recovery of postage and other sums due in respect of postal articles. If any person refuses to pay any postage or other sum due from him under this Act in respect of any postal article, the sum so due may, on application made by an officer of the Post Office authorised in this behalf by the written order of the Post Master General, be recovered for the use of the Post Office from the person so refusing, as if it were a fine imposed under this Act by any Magistrate having jurisdiction where that person may for the time being be resident; and the Post Master General may further direct that any other postal article, not being on <sup>1</sup>[Pakistan State] service, addressed to that person shall be withheld from him until the sum so due is paid or recovered as aforesaid.

13. Customs duty paid by the Post Office to be recoverable as postage. When a postal article, on which any duty of customs is payable, has been received by post from any place beyond the limits of <sup>2</sup>[Pakistan], and the duty has been paid by the postal authorities at any customs-port or elsewhere, the amount of the duty shall be recoverable as if it were postage due under this Act.

14. Post Office marks prima facie evidence of certain facts denoted. In every proceeding for the recovery of any postage or other sum alleged to be due under this Act in respect of a postal article,—

- (a) the production of the postal article, having thereon the official mark of the Post Office denoting that the article has been refused, or that the addressee is dead or cannot be found, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact so denoted, and
- (b) the person from whom the postal article purports to have come shall, until the country is proved, be deemed to be the sender thereof.

15. Official marks to be evidence of amount of postage. The official mark on a postal article denoting that any postage or other sum is due in respect thereof to the Post Office of <sup>2</sup>[Pakistan] or to the Post Office of <sup>3</sup>[any] foreign country, shall be prima facie evidence that the sum denoted as aforesaid is so due.
