THE NATIONAL ACCOUNTABILITY ORDINANCE, 1999

*ORDINANCE No. XVIII OF 1999

An Ordinance to provide for the setting up of a National Accountability Bureau so as to eradicate corruption and corrupt practices and hold accountable all those persons accused of such practices and matters ancillary thereto;

WHEREAS it is expedient and necessary to provide for effective measures for the detection, investigation, prosecution and speedy disposal of cases involving corruption, corrupt practices, ¹[misuse or abuse] of power ²[or authority], misappropriation of property, ²[taking of] kickbacks, commissions and for matters connected and ancillary or incidental thereto;

AND WHEREAS there is an emergent need for the recovery of outstanding amounts from those persons who have committed default in the repayment of amounts to Banks, Financial Institutions ³[Governmental agencies] and other agencies ;

AND WHEREAS there is a grave and urgent need for the recovery of state money and other assets from those persons who have misappropriated or removed such ²[money or] assets through corruption, corrupt practices and misuse of power ⁴[*] or authority;

⁵[AND WHEREAS there is an urgent need to educate the society about the causes and effects of corruption and corrupt practices and to implement policies and procedures for the prevention of corruption in the society ;]

⁶[AND WHEREAS there is an increased international awareness that nations should co-operate in combating corruption and seek, obtain or give mutual legal assistance in matters concerning corruption and for matters connected, ancillary or incidental thereto;]

AND WHEREAS it is necessary that a National Accountability Bureau be set up so as to achieve the above aims;

AND WHEREAS the National Assembly and the Senate stand suspended in pursuance of the Proclamation of the fourteenth day of October, 1999, and the Provisional Constitution Order No. 1 of 1999, as amended;

AND WHEREAS the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which ⁷[render] it necessary to take immediate action;

NOW THEREFORE, in pursuance of the aforesaid Proclamation and Provisional Constitutional Order as well as Order No. 9 of 1999, and in exercise of all powers enabling him in that behalf, the President of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan is pleased to make and promulgate the following Ordinance: —

No evidence contrary to the later shall be admissible.

Explanation II.—For the purpose of calculation of movable assets, the sum total of credit entries of bank account shall not be treated as an asset. Bank balance of an account on the date of initiation of inquiry may be treated as a movable asset. A banking transaction shall not be treated as an asset unless there is evidence of creation of corresponding asset through that transaction.

- (vi) if he intentionally misuses his authority by dis-regarding law so as to gain any monetary benefit or favour for himself or any other person related to him or on his behalf.

Explanation I.—That an act done in good faith and in discharge of duties and performance of official function shall not constitute an offence under this clause.

Explanation II.—That nothing shall be an offence of misuse of authority unless it is proved through material evidence that the holder of public office has gained any monetary benefit or asset from the person in whose favour the act of misuse of authority has been rendered.

Explanation III.—That the authority of the holder of a public office shall be clearly specified as per the applicable Government rules and regulations.

- (vii) Omitted;

- (viii) if he commits an offence of willful default; or

- (ix) if he commits the offence of cheating as defined in section 415 of the Pakistan Penal Code, 1860 (Act XLV of 1860) and thereby dishonestly induces members of the public at large to deliver any property including money or valuable security to any person:

Provided that nothing shall be an offence under clause (ix) unless it is established that there was an intention of cheating at the time of initiation of a transaction.

Explanation. —The civil and commercial disputes between parties shall not be triable under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Illustration I: A runs a Ponzi scheme and gives profit to its investors with intent to allure public. A is said to have committed cheating.

Illustration II: A receives investments in a lawful business and continued to pay agreed profits to the investors. Later the business runs into losses and a default on his obligations. A has not committed cheating.

- (x) if he commits the offence of criminal breach of trust as defined in section 405 of the Pakistan Penal Code, 1860 (Act XLV of 1860) with regard to any property including money or valuable security entrusted to him by members of the public at large;
- (xi) if he, in his capacity as a banker, merchant, factor, broker, attorney or agent, commits criminal breach of trust as provided in section 409 of the Pakistan Penal Code, 1860 (Act XLV of 1860) in respect of property entrusted to him or over which he has dominion; and
- (xii) if he aids, assists, abets, attempts or acts in conspiracy with a person or a holder of public office accused of an offence as provided in clauses (i) to (xi).
- (b) Subject to the provisions contained in sections 439, 496, 497, 498 and 498A of the Code, no Court other than the Court established under this Ordinance shall have powers to grant bail or order release of the accused.
- (c) If after completing the investigation of an offence against a holder of public office or any other person, the Chairman NAB is satisfied that no prima facie case is made out against him and the case may be closed, the Chairman NAB shall refer the matter to a Court for approval and for the release of the accused, if in custody.
- (d) The closure of an inquiry or investigation shall be communicated to the accused and such inquiry and investigation shall not be reopened without prior permission of the Court.]

10. Punishment for corruption and corrupt practice.—

- (a) ¹[A holder of public office or any other person] who commits the offence of corruption and corrupt practices shall be punishable with ²[rigorous] imprisonment for a term which may extend to ³[fourteen] years ⁴[and with fine] and such of the assets and ⁵[pecuniary resources] of such ⁶[holder of public office or person, as are] found to be disproportionate to the known sources of his income or which ⁷[are] acquired by money obtained through corruption and corrupt practices whether in his name or in the name of any of his dependents, or benamidars shall be ⁸* * * forfeited to the appropriate Government ⁹[, or the concerned bank or financial institution as the case may be] ³[:]

³[Provided that the convict shall be entitled to benefit under section 382-B of the Code.]

- ¹⁰[(b) The offences specified in the Schedule to this Ordinance shall be punishable in the manner specified therein.

- (c) The Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, amend the Schedule so as to add any entry thereto or modify or omit any entry therein.
